The 2003 Quest to Greece

Your Fraternity. Your Educational Foundation.
You Make the Difference.

Grand President Edward H. Hammond, Emporia State University '66, lives in Hays, Kansas, where he is the president of Fort Hays State University. Before being elected Grand President at the 2001 Grand Chapter Conclave, Brother Hammond served as Grand Secretary on the National Board of Directors for eight years and as a board member for 12 years.

Letter from the Grand President

Dear Brothers and Friends of SigEp,

On August 13-17, 2003, we will convene the 48th Grand Chapter Conclave in San Antonio, Texas. To date, over 1,000 brothers and guests have registered to attend; are you one of them? It isn't too late! Visit www.sigep.org/conclave to see who will be there and to register. There's a New SigEp in Town: Protecting the Future of the American College is the theme for our biennial convention. At a time when fraternities are criticized for being irrelevant to today's student, Sigma Phi Epsilon is providing the very best programming and experience possible.

Being the best also means strong academic success. As the 2002-2003 academic year ends, our grade point average continues to rise to an all-time high with a fall GPA of a 2.85. In our first semester of the Phi Beta Kappa Wheelhouse, Fall, 1999, we listed 19 chapters in The Journal. For the Fall, 2002, we are listing 35 chapters! This means that our undergraduate brothers are diligent in their pursuit of knowledge and rise to the challenge of high academic standards.

As you will read in Chapter News, the number of chapters recognized as the outstanding fraternity on their campuses speaks to the quality of those chapters. And individual brothers are also finding success. On 46 different campuses, SigEps hold either the Student Body President position or the Interfraternity Council President position. On at least three campuses, SigEps occupy both positions. See which chapters are producing campus leaders and helping fulfill the Fraternity's mission, "Building Balanced Leaders for the World's Communities."

This issue of The Journal is also the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation's Annual Report and thank-you to donors. You will see the incredible impact that is made by the generosity of our donors. The Fraternity had 1,209 new members attend New Member Camps, 1,659 undergraduate officers attended one of nine Carlson Leadership Academies, 124 of SigEp's best and brightest attended the Ruck Leadership Institute this summer, and 19 brothers are returning from the greatest journey a young SigEp can aspire to, the Balanced Man Quest to Greece. Are you making a difference?

This was all made possible by the 5,138 donors to the Educational Foundation last year. Yes, 5,138 difference makers. How many undergraduates will be reached in 2004? That depends on you. Make the decision to support the Educational Foundation and impact the lives of SigEp undergraduates. Make a decision to join us in San Antonio and see for yourself what Making a Difference really means.

Fraternally,

Edward H. Hammond
Grand President

Sharing the Roots, A Quest to Greece Ambassador's Odyssey

By Christopher Gerard, Southern Methodist '03 / chrisg03@hotmail.com

During the summer of 2002, Gerard attended the Balanced Man Quest to Greece. After this incredible experience, he returned to the United States with a new understanding of his life and Sigma Phi Epsilon. At the Baltimore, Maryland, Carlson Leadership Academy held on February 7 and 8, 2003, Gerard discussed his experience with his peers during the Saturday luncheon.

Greeks had an appreciation for balance. They believed that nothing should be taken in excess so that everything in life would be balanced. This belief inspired the sculptures and the creation of monumental temples and structures. The Greeks' pursuit of balance led to the creation of vivid literature such as The Odyssey and The Iliad, and it inspired the Greeks to contrive the first Olympic games. The ancient Greeks realized the necessity of balancing both mind and body, and they knew, in order to attain this, an individual needed to be critical of himself and his actions. Socrates said, "The unexamined life is not worth living." As individuals and as SigEps, we must turn a critical eye upon ourselves if we are to continue to succeed as a Fraternity...and as Balanced Men.

Sound Mind and Sound Body is a philosophy we must continually strive for regardless of whether we ever reach it. Because, as we get closer to equalizing the fruits of the mind with those of the body, we get to know ourselves as well as the world around us.

The ancient Greeks were masters of this concept. They routinely ventured beyond their known world to learn and discover what lies at the ends of the earth. Many of their successes and failures are still with us today, from the ruins that adorn the Grecian landscape, to politics, philosophy, science, and modern medicine. The Greeks were the first to map the human body, the first to establish an alphabet, and the first to realize the Earth was round (although few agreed with them until nearly 1,200 years later). In my opinion the Greeks have done more for the advancement of the human race than any society before them or since, and it is all because of their constant pursuit of knowledge and physical well-being.

The Balanced Man Quest to Greece allowed me to engage and interact within Greek society and to explore my own thoughts and beliefs about the world around me and about my Fraternity. Many people ask, "What is the purpose of fraternity?" The answer to this question lies some 2,000 years ago when men and women began association with one another through secret societies and a common belief in a values-based living. Since going on the Quest to Greece, I now understand why I joined a fraternity, and more specifically, why I joined SigEp. I realize the need to be critical of myself and to take responsibility for my own actions. I also realize the wealth of potential that can be gained by living a Balanced Life.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

After downloading the Spring 2003 issue of The Journal from the website, I couldn't wait to get the "hard copy." I am so pleased to see that The Journal is developing nicely into a premier periodical. This issue is fantastic. It just keeps getting better and better and the content is really exciting. I am convinced that the great improvements in The Journal will increase awareness among many alumni who may begin to step forward and answer the challenge to be mentors and alumni volunteers.

THE GROWTH OF EXCELLENCE

Welcome Back Texas Iota, Texas Tech University April 5, 2003

Everything is bigger in Texas, right? For the SigEps at Texas Tech this includes their goal of being the largest SigEp chapter in the country as early as Spring of 2004. As recently rechartered Texas Iota, they have a lot of support to make it happen, including a group of dedicated volunteers and a reliance on the Balanced Man Ideal.

Chapter & History

Texas Iota was originally chartered on November 21, 1970. During its 26-year history, the chapter was awarded four Buchanan Cups in '73, '77, '87, and '89. In 1996, the chapter was closed due to hazing. Recruitment efforts for the new chapter began in the Fall of 1999. During the next two years, the chapter would enlist the assistance of other SigEp chapters to enhance its operations. SigEps from Texas Gamma, Texas Christian helped execute the Ritual with the new chapter. Arkansas Alpha, Arkansas-Fayetteville revised the chapter's bylaws. The Southern Methodist Sigma Epsilon Chapter provided suggestions for their member development program.

Living the Balanced Man Ideal

In building a Sound Body, the chapter organizes football, basketball and softball tournaments with its members. This is in addition to having a competitive intramural presence, ending the year in the top 25 percent of fraternity teams. The chapter also has experts speak on a variety of health topics, including diet, sleep, alcohol abuse and intervention. Finally, every member is required to have a physical once a year.

To develop a Sound Mind, the men attend a cultural event once a month.

These range from musical recitals to operas. Faculty Advisor and alumnus

Mark C. Porter, Texas Tech, '95, meets with the men of the chapter to help them set goals for their academics. Knowing that a diverse chapter has many viewpoints, Texas Iota recruits men from all over the world. There are members from Venezuela, the Philippines, India and Puerto Rico.

Volunteer Support

The Alumni and Volunteer Corporation (A&VC) has seven members and is working to secure permanent housing. Members of the A&VC include President Robert N. Armstrong, Texas Tech, '73, Treasurer Andrew J. Smith, Texas Tech, '86, and Secretary Christopher S. Loveless, Texas Tech, '92. Paul J. Porter, Texas Tech, '90, Brent M. McCutchin, Texas Tech, '95, and Ricardo H. Estrada, Texas Tech, '91, round out the A&VC and maintain communication with Texas Iota's 1,115 alumni.

The Chapter Lodge

Texas Iota currently meets in a small lodge located close to Greek Circle, which is home to all fraternities and sororities. The chapter has its meetings in the lodge, and brothers come by to watch TV or play a game of pool or foosball. The chapter is outgrowing the lodge and the Alumni and Volunteer Corporation is working hard to locate a larger meeting lodge.

Campus Environment

Texas Technological College began classes in 1925 with 914 students studying liberal arts, agriculture, engineering, and home economics. In 1963, the college changed its name to Texas Tech University, and today, it has grown to include over 27,000 students. Over 3,000 students are members of 42 different fraternities and sororities. All fraternities have lodges where members attend chapter meetings and functions.

Affectionately known as "the Oreo" by students, the Seal of Texas Tech stands 12 feet tall and is at the entrance to the campus.

The Executive Board is installed by National Director Roger H. VanHoozer, Washburn '72, (not shown). Left to right: VP Recruitment Kevin G. Cagney, '03, VP Programming Jacob N. Sotello, '06, VP Communications C. Thomas Gormley, '04, VP Finance Christopher K. Fleming, '05, Chaplin Joseph J. Lovo, '04, and VP Member Development Darrin M. Kaucher, '05.

Red Door Notes

CHAPTER HOUSE PROFILES

The tradition of the red door on Sigma Phi Epsilon chapter houses began on the campus of Syracuse University, New York Alpha in 1928. Today, nearly every Sigma Phi Epsilon chapter home has a red door to welcome SigEp brothers. The original house and red door is pictured to the right. This building is now the International Students Center, and Sigma Phi Epsilon has another magnificent home for its red door.

Ball State / Indiana Gamma

- Originally built in 1921, a second addition was added in 1964 bringing the occupancy up to 48 men.
- Currently the Alumni & Volunteer Corporation is in the midst of $1.7 million capital campaign to build a new chapter house that includes an office for their Faculty Fellow and high-speed Internet access.

Bowling Green State / Ohio Kappa Residential Learning Community*

- This university-owned chapter house is substance free and sleeps 33 members.
- Recent renovations included new furniture for the chapter room and a meeting space in the chapter library. There is also a computer lab with four computers and a live-in Graduate Student helps the chapter set goals for academics.

Northwestern / Illinois Lambda Residential Learning Community*

- Located in Evanston, Illinois the chapter house is home to 33 SigEps.
- The chapter house has dedicated meeting space and a library on the fourth floor, where the faculty fellow meets weekly with chapter brothers.

Oregon State / Oregon Alpha

- Built in 1925, this chapter house sleeps 82 men.
- Each room has high-speed Internet access, and there is a chapter library. The trophy room is located on the first floor and has a baby grand piano and conference table.
- The Parent's Club recently purchased oak chairs for the chapter's dining room.

* — A Residential Learning Community is the new fraternity home. See page 19 for more on this revolutionary program.

Michael J. Mazza, Davidson '04

Qualifying for the US Spring Nationals in four events: 100 butterfly, 200 butterfly, 200 breaststroke, 200 individual medley was Cody T. Rempfer, Utah '06. At the US meet, he was on the seventh place 400 medley relay, placed 14th with the 400 freestyle relay and finished 30th in the 100 butterfly and 200 breaststroke.

S. Adam Freeman, '05, was the top diver for Bucknell and won the Patriot League one meter title with a school record 299.73 points over six dives. He was also third in three meter diving at the conference meet. At the Conference USA meet, diver Chad M. Hummel, TCU '04, placed fourth in one meter diving and fifth in the three meter competition. He also competed at the NCAA Zone D meet, placing 14th on the three meter springboard and 15th on the one meter board. Thomas R. Zenk, St. Louis '05, placed 11th in the Conference USA 200 backstroke event.

Casey J. Morford, Evansville '04, was a key competitor at the Missouri Valley Conference meet. He placed third on four relays (200 medley, 400 freestyle, 400 medley, 800 freestyle) and had fourth place finishes in the 100 and 200 butterfly events. Norman F. "Ned" Stainthorpe, Yale '04, had a sixth place finish in the 100 backstroke at the Eastern Intercollegiate Swimming League meet. Also competing at the EISL meet was diver Aaron M. Farber, Columbia '05. Bradley A. Thrasher, Duke '04, had a career-best time of 1:53.46 in a 24th place finish in the 200 backstroke at the Atlantic Coast Conference meet.

Six SigEps on the Davidson squad were led by co-captains Robert D. Koch, '04, and Diego S. Marquez, '03. At the Southern Conference meet, Robert was on the eighth place 400 freestyle relay; placed 14th in the 1650 freestyle; and had 15th finishes in the 200 and 500 freestyle events. Diver Christopher M. Wroblewski, '05, did well at the SC event, placing fifth in one meter springboard diving and 11th in three meter diving. Foster M. Mathews, '05, was on two seventh place relays (200 freestyle, 400 medley); tied for ninth in the 200 breaststroke; and placed 11th in the 100 breaststroke. Michael J. Mazza, '04, was on the SC meet's eighth place 200 medley relay and had the ninth-best 100 butterfly time in school history. Nat V. Wittstruck, '05, was also a swimmer at Davidson.

Jacob G. "Jake" Berg, South Dakota State '05, had the team's top times in the 50 and freestyle events. Two Baldwin-Wallace SigEps were the team's top divers at the Ohio

Varsity Athletes

Athletic Conference meet. Jonathan Sherer, '04, placed second on both the one and three meter boards while Stephen T. Inchak, '03, placed third on the one meter board and fourth on the three meter board.

Two SigEps helped lead Denison to a fifth place finish at the NCAA Division III championship and earned All-American honors. Gregory A. Haar, '05, was on the fourth place 400 freestyle relay. Prior to the NCAA's, he won the 200 freestyle event (1:40.85) at the North Coast Athletic Conference meet. Teammate Jared C. Smith, '03, was on the NCAA fourth place 400 freestyle relay with Greg after previously swimming on two second place relays (200 freestyle, 400 freestyle) at the NCAC meet.

Gaining All-American honorable mention at the Division III meet was Eric P. Ritter, Washington & Lee, '04, who placed 16th in the 100 backstroke and 22nd in the 200 backstroke. At the Southern States meet, he won the 100 and 200 backstroke events. Also doing well for W&L at the Southern States meet were Christopher S. Colby, '05, who won the 200 butterfly; M. Clark Barrineau, '06, who won the 1650 freestyle and was on the third place 800 freestyle relay; and co-captain Zachary T. Fake, '03, who swam on four second place relay teams.

Diver Christopher M. Wroblewski, Davidson '05

Westminster co-captain James S. Mann, '03, went to the Division III championships for the fourth straight year, placing 19th in the 100 backstroke. He was named Presidents Athletic Conference Most Valuable Swimmer after winning the PAC 100 breaststroke, 200 breaststroke and 100 butterfly events. Teammate Craig M. Guthoerl, '03, was the team's other co-captain and was Division III National Men's Swimmer of the Week in early February. At the PAC meet, he was on two winning relays (200 medley, 200 freestyle).

Mitchell D. Lauer, WPI '04, was a key swimmer at the New England Women's & Men's Athletics Conference meet. He was on the second place 200 medley relay, and fourth place 200 freestyle relay. Christopher "Chris" Porco, Rochester '06, competed at the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association meet, placing 12th at the 50 freestyle and 20th in the 100 freestyle. Other SigEps in the pool this winter included Justin M. Symons, George Washington '06, Jerid K. Kurtz, Case Western Reserve '05, and Reuben B. Barnes, Ohio Wesleyan '05.

Basketball

Leading Purdue to a 19-11 season and the second round of the NCAA Division I playoffs was head coach Lloyd E. "Gene" Keady, Kansas State '58, who completed his 23rd year at the school. During the season, he became the second coach in Big Ten history to win more than 250 games in conference play and his 526 career wins rank him in a 45th place tie for all-time wins in NCAA

Forward John Green, '04, of 19-3 Division II Barton was the team's top rebounder (144, 6.5 per game), ranked second in scoring (278 points, 12.6 per game) and shot 79.5% from the free throw line.

Named to the Verizon Academic All-District VII third team was Colorado Mines co-captain/center Michael T. "Mike" McNish, '03, who also earned All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference honorable mention. He started every contest; shot 63.2% from the field; led in rebounding (181, 6.5 per game); ranked second in blocked shots (40); and was third in scoring (308 points, 11.0 per game).

Three SigEps were key players for Westminster. Forward Gregory W. "Greg" Foster, '03, who started 27 games, led in scoring (422 points, 15.6 per game), rebounds (294, 10.9), minutes played (863), field goal percentage (57.7%) and blocked shots (80). Greg was named to the Verizon Academic All-District II team and had three big games: 32 points, 18 rebounds against LaRoche; 25 points, 24 rebounds versus Pittsburgh-Greensburg; and 24 points, 12 rebounds in the Lake Erie game. Teammate Jefferson M. "Jeff" Simmons, '03, was second in assists (58), scored 195 points (7.2 per game) and had a big game versus Waynesburg (19 points, 6 rebounds). Starting 14 games for Westminster was Richard P. "Rick" Giordano, '03.

Forward Carson Oren, Case Western Reserve '06, was named University Athletic Association Co-Rookie of the Year and earned All-UAA honorable mention. Also playing every game for CWRU was guard Richard Mullen, '06, who scored 133 points (5.3 per game) while forward F. Richard Heath, '06, got into 18 contests.

Huntingdon captain/guard Drew D. Felix, '02, was named to the Great South Athletic Conference All-Academic team and gained All-GSAC honorable mention. He shot 84.9% at the free throw line (45 of 53) and scored 231 points (10.0 per game). Guard Tyler L. Reed, '05, started 17 contests for Ohio Wesleyan, ranked fourth with 40 assists and scored 103 points (4.0 per game). Seeing action in 15 games for OWU was center Brandon A. Reid, '05.

Henry C. Pruitt, Columbia '03

Wrestling, Fencing, and Squash

Competing as wrestlers for their schools were Anthony J. "A.J." Cessario, West Virginia '06, Geoffrey W. Veitch, WPI '04, of and the Baldwin-Wallace duo of Steven J. DiMichele, '03, and Seth R. Pirc, '05. A good competitor in epee for the Columbia fencing team was Henry C. Pruitt, '03, and Joshua A. Schwartz, '05, was the fourth seed on the Yale squash team and ranked in the top ten in the country. Chicago boasts a pair of fencers as well – Marvin J. Lowenthal '06, and Zachary Schwartz '06. Edwin Gulko, Columbia '04, is a member of the water polo team.

Baseball, Tennis, Golf and Track

A large number of SigEps are competing for their schools this spring. Names of note include baseball players Brendan Gilligan, '03, the Georgia Southern starting catcher, pitcher Eric Steinbach, Bucknell '05, shortstop Brian J. Regan, Denison '04, outfielder Travis J. Falk, Ohio Wesleyan '03, pitcher Matthew A. Pournaras, Westminster '03, and pitcher Joe Guistina, Susquehanna '04, to name a few.

On the links this spring are golfers Jarrod R. Gardner, Mississippi '04, and Daniel A. "Dan" Luke, Mississippi, W. Tyler Garrett, Texas A&M '05, Endel Liias, Penn '03, and Conner H. Robbins, Washington '03, Jonathan A. Kropski, Davidson '04, Andrew W. Patterson, Loyola Marymount '06, a foursome at Marshall (including Burke Spensky, '03, and Bradley Tweel, '05), Matthew W. Liljequist, North Dakota '05, and Washington & Lee co-captain Charles E. "Chuck" Green, '03.

Scott Green, Wisconsin '04

Jarrod R. Gardner, Mississippi '04

Among SigEps on the tennis court for their schools are Scott Green, Wisconsin '04, Parker R. Collins, Southern California '04, Brian Isern, Alabama '03, and Ryan M. Sherry, Florida '06. Track men of note include Kelly C. Basinger, Georgia '03, Matt Mulvaney, Miami '04, Randall "Randy" Block, Kentucky '05, Frank Rodriguez, Long Beach State '02, co-captain Jimmy Swansbrough, Davidson '03, Cameron G. Felton, North Dakota '05, and co-captain Timothy S. Pelc, Susquehanna '03. In the next issue, The Journal will review the efforts of SigEpi spring athletes.

Sound Mind and Sound Body

LIVING THE BALANCED MAN IDEAL

Striving to attain SigEp's Balanced Man Ideal involves the development of a Sound Mind and a Sound Body. Because the body is the vessel of the mind, one must have a strong, healthy body. These stories profile SigEps, alumni and undergraduates living the Balanced Man Ideal. Read their stories and see how they have fun living their best life.

Deep Dive with Bucknell's Freeman

Sophomore S. Adam Freeman, Bucknell, '05, is double majoring in Mechanical Engineering and Economics, has a 3.46 GPA, is a member of the Bucknell Diving Team, and is looking forward to serving his chapter as an officer. As a student, he has made the Dean's List three times. Recently, he was named the 2003 Patriot League Swimming and Diving Scholar Athlete of the Year and Patriot League Champion this spring. The Journal interviewed Adam to learn a little more about his accomplishments as an athlete, his goals and his passion for Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Journal: When did you get involved with diving?

Adam: I began diving in the eighth grade as part of a club. By the time I was a senior in high school, I held all of the records for Barrington High and placed third in the State Meet. I was also involved in two other sports, but I excelled in diving. In college, it is a great opportunity for me to stay fit and focused on my academics.

Journal: You played three sports; what is a typical day for you?

Adam: During the season, I have breakfast at 7:30 in the morning at the SigEp house and attend classes all morning. After that, I go back to the chapter house for lunch and will spend time with the brothers until my classes later in the afternoon. Diving practice is from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. six days a week, and after that, I am back in my dorm room studying. Three days each week we have 6:00 a.m. weightlifting, so I plan to get plenty of rest the night before. The season is from early September to mid-March.

Journal: That is most of the school year, isn't it?

Adam: Yes.

Journal: What are some of your goals?

Adam: After I graduate, I plan to work for a few years then get my MBA. After that, I will pursue a career in business management.

Journal: What attracted you to join SigEp?

Adam: Each fraternity has its own stereotype at Bucknell, and SigEp is the "different" fraternity. SigEp did not come across like a social drinking club, but rather as holding the values of the Fraternity very close. I liked the guys and being a part of the largest fraternity on campus. When I learned about SigEp's values, I realized how well they aligned with my own. The Balanced Man Ideal was the main reason I joined. I am very focused on my academics and knew I would not compromise my grades by joining. I am also very focused on athletics and knew that would not get compromised either. In fact, SigEp has won the intramural championship for the past five years, and we get very excited competing in intramurals.

Journal: Do you see yourself taking on a leadership role within the chapter?

Adam: I would very much like to be a chapter officer next year. I have been talking with our current Chapter President, James N. Ritter, '04, and attended the president sessions at the Carlson Leadership Academy in Chantilly, Virginia. It was a very helpful and intense weekend. I learned a lot of innovative ways to improve the chapter while at the same time hearing a lot of good solutions to common issues facing chapters.

Journal: Anything else you would like to add?

Adam: SigEp has a positive influence on the University and the community while helping the brothers to become Balanced Men and the leaders of tomorrow. As an example, this past year, SigEp was the only fraternity chapter on this campus to receive the Silver Star Award that is awarded by the administration as part of Bucknell's "Plan for Prominence." Silver Star status is based upon community service, philanthropy, educational programming, hosting of campus-wide events, and generally being in good standing with the university. We were also awarded the Chapter of the Year Award. While it was quite an honor to receive these awards, it did not surprise me because that is the "difference" that originally drew me to SigEp during rush.

The World's Fittest Athletes

One of humanity's most distinguishing traits is its desire for self-improvement. Within each of us is the passion for something better. What will tomorrow bring? Are we content to let events shape who we are, or do we have a say? When we look ahead and set our sights on a goal, it gives us a vision of what the future holds. Persevering unto the attainment of that goal gives our life meaning, and then seeking a loftier goal makes us divine.

It is with this spirit that three brothers from the University of Wisconsin, Wisconsin Beta decided to train for the Madison Triathlon.

Michael T. Casper, '04, and Nathan A. Lampi, '03, ran in the Chicago Marathon in October of 2001. A year later, the two were on a routine 16-mile run, when they joked that a marathon wasn't strenuous, it did not hold the same zeal as before. In search of a new milestone, they tossed around the idea of training for a marathon, but it was not until fellow SigEp John D. Welter, '03, informed them that he committed to the Madison Triathlon that Lampi and Casper had a new goal.

An Ironman Triathlon consists of a 2.4-mile swim, a 112-mile bike ride, and a 26.2-mile run. In 1978, the Ironman was born when a group of Navy Seals discussed who were the fittest athletes in the world — swimmers, cyclists, or runners? Their answer was to combine all three into a triathlon. Anyone completing a triathlon would be the world's fittest athlete. The first Ironman consisted of 20 competitors, and today, there are 15 sanctioned races worldwide and over 20,000 athletes competed in 2002.

Nathan A. Lampi, Wisconsin '03

Casper, Lampi and Welter are in the midst of training for the September 7, 2003, event. All three live in Madison, Wisconsin, and devote four hours of their day to training. The Journal will bring you the results of their efforts in the next issue. Casper shares his exercise routine with The Journal so that we can see what kind of preparation goes into a triathlon. Already their dedication has inspired other brothers to train for similar contests: Eric J. Lien, '03 – Timberland Triathlon (sprint distance); Micah J. Vegter, '03 – Grandma's Marathon and Chicago Marathon; Alexander T. Ferber, '06 – Green Bay 1/2 Marathon; Kevin C. Sobieski, '06 – Green Bay 1/2 Marathon; Ryan M. Sugden, '06 – Ride for the Arts (50-mile bike ride); and Steven D. Weiss, '04 – JP Morgan Chase 10k Challenge.

Casper has a personal goal of completing the swim in 90 minutes, the biking in seven hours, and the running in four-and-a-half hours, for a total of 13 hours. Lampi has his sights set on finishing in 12 hours, and Welter wants to see the three complete the Ironman together. What does tomorrow hold? For these men, it means they are fulfilling their dream of a better self. It impacts their chapter brothers, and hopefully all of us as well.

CASPER'S WORKOUT ROUTINE

Note: This workout is designed for an intermediate level athlete training for a triathlon. A beginner would need to focus on two-mile runs, five-mile bike rides and practice basic swimming techniques.

MONDAY: Weightlifting

- 60 minutes or less, chest, triceps, and abdominals; 12-15 repetitions (reps) with minimal rest between sets

Cardiovascular Training

- Running for 30 minutes either at a constant pace, a cycle of sprinting uphill, sprint and jogging downhill, or an interval run of running hard every other three minutes while jogging in between

TUESDAY: Weightlifting

- 60 minutes or less, shoulders, back and biceps; 12-15 reps with minimal rest between sets

Cardiovascular Training

- 30 minutes on a stationary bike using a high resistance leg muscle

WEDNESDAY: Rest

THURSDAY: Weightlifting

- 60 minutes or less, legs and abdominals
- ### Cardiovascular Training

- 30 minutes swimming in a lap pool, starting with warm-up laps, followed by lap drills to work on form and breathing techniques, finished with an endurance swim for the remaining time. Note: Swimming technique is important to master, so it is recommended to either read a book or take a class to improve performance.

FRIDAY: Cardiovascular Training

- 60-minute bike ride
- 30-minute run at constant pace

SATURDAY/SUNDAY: Rest

LIVING THE BALANCED MAN IDEAL

Jump, Jive, and Wail with Joel

Joel D. Plys, Bradley University, '93, has taken his unique talent for swing dancing and turned it into a business for himself and his wife, Alison. Together they started 2PlySwing in September of 2002.

Joel D. Plys, Bradley '93, and his wife Alison have taught swing dancing in over 15 states across the U.S., as well as Canada, England, Sweden, and later this year, Toulouse, France.

Plys left the SigEp Headquarters staff in 1993 after traveling as a Regional Director. For the next few years, he worked as a business process consultant. In 1998, while on a date in Chicago, he began to develop his dancing talents by taking a beginner swing lesson. With a lot of practice and time on the dance floor, it snowballed into a full-time gig.

He started a full-time swing dance company in Cleveland, Ohio, in January of 1999 and continued to instruct there for four years. After ranking in national competitions, Joel began to teach all over the country, and now, the world. He recently moved to San Diego with his new wife, Alison. They are one of few couples in the nation who can truly offer instruction in all areas of authentic swing – Lindy, Collegiate Shag, Balboa, Charleston, and more...

What Joel enjoys most about his new profession is teaching – especially working with grade schools and high schools across the country. "It's a great chance to share American history through the evolution of America's only true folk dance – Jitterbug! Back then, everyone danced – it was a way of life; it was their only entertainment. We try to bring that energy back today."

"Partner dancing is a great way to stay fit and to meet a lot of great people. Dancers thrive on good music and connecting with their dance partners – it's a very social activity. Learning swing dancing is a great way to achieve the Balanced Man Ideals of building a Sound Body while obtaining a skill that will last a lifetime." They are ready to work with SigEp chapters across the country to provide programming. Visit www.2PlySwing.com or call (619) 255-1319 for complete information on Joel and Alison.

You Mean the Greeks Were Right?

If you lived in Greece or Southern Italy in 1960, chances are you wouldn't die from a heart attack; you would outlive your friends living in other parts of the world, and all while not having the convenience of a hospital within your town.

Causality points to the foods and activity level of the people in that part of the world. The dietary habits of the 1960s Mediterranean align with the FDA's instantly recognizable food pyramid, proving that, along with philosophy and medicine, the Greeks were again ahead of the curve. Considering the differences in their diet in that time frame lends itself to some interesting facts:

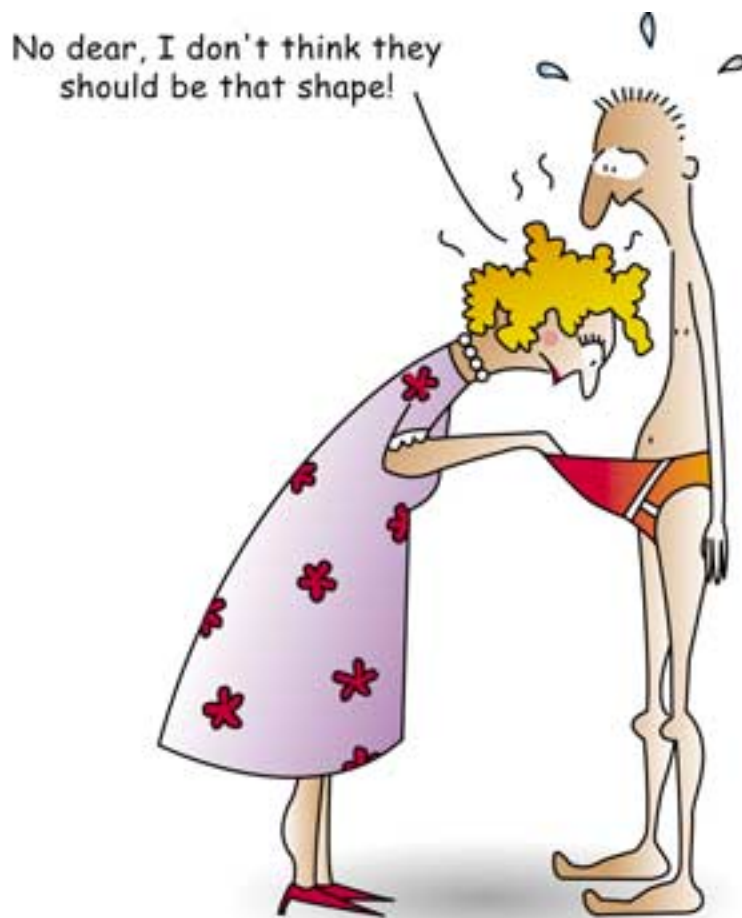

- Mediterraneans had among the lowest rates of chronic diseases in the world.
- Mediterraneans had among the highest adult life expectancy.
- Mediterraneans had limited medical services.

On a daily basis they ate an abundance of food from plant sources, including fruits and vegetables, potatoes, breads and grains, beans, nuts, and seeds. Olive oil was another staple consumed every day, and it replaced other fats and oils. They also consumed low to moderate amounts of cheese and yogurt. Weekly consumption consisted of low to moderate eggs, fish, and poultry. Red meat was eaten a few times each month not more than 16 ounces. Wine consumption was daily. One to two glasses for men and one for women.

Early to Rise – The Newest Weight Loss Fad?

Maybe, if you start every day by working out, exercising first thing in the morning has several advantages. One, it boosts your metabolism and keeps it elevated for most of the day. Many people find it also regulates their appetite, and they are not prone to eating as much. A higher metabolism and less caloric intake leads to weight loss. You should plan to go to bed and wake up at the same time everyday. Your body will get used to this pattern and it will become easier to wake up. An erratic sleeping habit confuses your body.

"Don't turn a blind eye" Male cancers are more common than you think!

It's no laughing matter, as this cartoon, which ran in The Economist magazine, reminds us. This year more than 7,000 men between the ages of 14 and 40 will be diagnosed with Testicular Cancer. Prostate Cancer is the second most common form of cancer in men. This year there will be more than 220,000 cases diagnosed. Consult your physician or visit www.cancer.org for more information. LIVING THE BALANCED MAN IDEAL

Bringing in the Experts

Recently at the University of Oregon, the Oregon Beta Chapter enlisted some high profile speakers to discuss the benefits of SigEp, time management and individual responsibility. Vice President of Development Matthew R. Smith, '03, contacted each one of the speakers, and his efforts paid off.

Oregon Beta alumnus and sports marketing pioneer James H. Warsaw, '69, spoke to a group of SigEps and recruits. Warsaw talked about his SigEp experience and how it led to his success in sports marketing. In 1994 the Warsaw Sports Marketing Center was established as the first endowed sports marketing MBA program to be housed within a University. He touched on his retirement and search for a cure for Parkinson's disease—he created The Cure Parkinson's Project (www.givingback.org).

University President Dave Frohnmeyer came to the chapter house to discuss time management and how he organizes his day. He met with the chapter after its Monday evening chapter meeting. Finally Oregon head football coach Mike Bellotti shared his thoughts on individual responsibility. He discussed how the actions of one member affect the entire group. He gives a similar speech to his football players.

“Veni Vedi Venci”

M Todd Lewis, Southern Illinois-Carbondale, '94, is a man on the go. Last summer, Lewis and W. Markus Kuo, Southern Illinois-Carbondale, '93, traveled to Pamplona, Spain, to run with the bulls, an historic event dating back to the year 1500. It is seen by the Spanish as a rite of passage into manhood. He has planned a return trip for this summer and in the interim has run in two marathons over the course of two months.

His fanatical dedication to challenge himself stems from a list of goals he set two years ago. At that time Lewis listed the things he wanted to accomplish. Part of his goals for 2002 was to run with the Bulls in Pamplona and to run in a marathon. He had not run more than eight miles before, and his first marathon was December 7th.

When veteran runners told him running two marathons in two months was not possible, Lewis set the bar so high that, “they couldn't see it.” He ran five marathons in five months. His next goal is to compete in an Ironman Triathlon.

“For a while in my life I was surrounded by people that had no vision, no goals, no passion. No more... for me to accomplish my goals I had to have a positive attitude. I even had the vending company at our office change the scrolling message on the snack machine from ‘Have a Good Day’ to ‘Veni Vedi Venci’ (Latin for I came, I saw, I conquered).”

Tango with Theta

At Southern Methodist University, the SigEp idea of a fun Friday evening does not involve a crowded, smoke-filled bar. It involves a ballroom, the ladies of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority, and some lessons in Tango, that's right Tango. Not lip-syncing to Bon Jovi songs at one in the morning.

In the spirit of Sound Mind and Sound Body, the undergraduates enlisted the talents of a Tango instructor from the school and began the evening with lessons. After learning part of a song, everyone switched partners. Eventually the SigEps and Thetas honed their dancing skills without the aid of the instructor. In the end everyone learned a new talent and enjoyed the evening.

Dancing with a sorority is not an unusual event for the chapter. In the past year they had swing dancing with a sorority and listened to jazz with another. “I find that our most successful events are these, and although bars and clubs are fun, the girls never forget moments like these,” says Vice President of Programming Ryan R. Lamb, '05, and no one left smelling like an ashtray or with strained vocal cords.

The Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation —

I just returned from the Quest to Greece. Eleven days with 19 SigEp Brothers trekking through more old ruins, old rocks, and old museums than I ever knew existed.

By the end of the first day I had learned that all the “cool kids” wear Rainbow sandals. Day two found us jogging through the streets of Athens...sharing the sunrise with 2000 year old buildings and realizing I was starting to cry. By day three I was treading water in the Aegean and learning the words of a new SigEp song. And on Day four I finally connected the dots and felt what it meant to be a Brother.

Thirteen years ago, Chuck White dragged me back into the Fraternity after my 20 years of withdrawal from swats, hazing, humiliation, booze, raw eggs, and garbanzo beans.

I had no idea that SigEp had found the courage to return to the traditions of our Founders and become a meaningful positive force for the future.

I had no idea that SigEp had developed a Leadership Program that would re-create and build upon the traditions and moral values of our Founders.

That Program...The Leadership Continuum...starts with New Member Camps and progresses through Carlson Leadership Academies, the Ruck Leadership Institute, and culminates with the Quest to Greece.

It's amazing.

And it needs you, and me, and all of us together to make it work.

Whether you're able to make a gift of your time...or a gift of your resources... your gift is equally important. Either gift demonstrates your commitment to walk in the footsteps of our Founders.

Our footsteps through Greece completed my own Leadership Continuum and my personal experience with each program that we support. I'm blessed to have had that second chance to be a Brother.

And as our Quest was coming to a close we had decided it was appropriate after all to conduct the Ritual for our Brother Jacob Mullins from Yale. There had been concern about being away from his home chapter and his Brothers who had raised him. Concern about finding the right spot and the right stuff. But ultimately, we all decided to go ahead and make do with a mountainside location outside the village of Delphi and the make do equipment that we could find.

With rain clouds overhead, the lights of the seaport thousands of feet below us, and the distant howl of an evening wind, we began. I remember the wonder of it all. And I remember looking up and realizing the clouds had cleared.

Years ago on a trip to South Africa I was told to be sure to look for the biggest sky in the world. It goes all the way from one edge to the other. What a stupid concept — until you see it.

On Jacob's night the biggest sky in the world was over Delphi. And to each of us, those 245,000 brightest stars were our SigEp Brothers looking down on each of us as we trekked through more old rocks than I ever knew existed.

245,000 SigEp Stars...stars like our Founders, Uncle Billy, like Ed Zollinger, Don McCleary, Curt Carlson...and so many others who cared so much. Each looking down and all so pleased to know that their Brothers still carry on. Trying to know good and to do good. Trying to remember that our real traditions are based on universal respect for self and others. In living a Balanced Life. In giving back so others may carry on.

And over there? That really bright star...the one with the biggest smile? I'd like to think that was probably Frank Ruck. Quietly nodding his approval as each of us...in his own way...finally connected the dots.

The view from Delphi, 2003 Quest to Greece

Sigma Phi Epsilon is not just for college days... SigEp is for all your days.

This year's graduates will meet SigEps from other chapters at work or in their community. Whether it is seeing a SigEp ring or finding out in conversation that Sigma Phi Epsilon is a shared experience, there is an immediate connection.

As Sigma Phi Epsilon grows, these experiences become more common. This is the beauty of our successful Fraternity.

Last year 5,138 alumni, 1,250 for the first time, decided to participate as a donor to the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation, making a gift to their favorite program or to their chapter's fund in the Foundation.

These alumni contributed a total of $1,533,338.

And what did you accomplish with your gift?

In a big way your investments make possible programs building on the Balanced Man Ideal – developing a Sound Mind in a Sound Body. This is an important influence on the lives of the 15,000 undergraduate Brothers now in our chapters. These programs assure that our Fraternity has every opportunity to grow and prosper on each campus.

Funding this year is provided for a series of programs in the Leadership Continuum.

- New Member Camps immerse new members in the values of Sigma Phi Epsilon right after they join. They meet and interact with other chapters. This will involve 2,000 new members in 2003.

- The Carlson Leadership Academies conducted in February continue to be a special leadership experience for new chapter officers. This year 2,100 Brothers participated at nine locations.

The Greek letters found inscribed on a rock outside of Delphi, Greece.

- For four days this summer, 127 exceptional SigEp leaders gathered at the University of Richmond for the fourth Ruck Leadership Institute. The Ruck Institute builds for the future and keeps SigEp “the Fraternity that is different.” Thanks to alumni support, participation doubled this year.

- Fast becoming a beacon for Sigma Phi Epsilon, the third Quest to Greece with 19 Brothers and two faculty members took place in mid-June.

Sigma Phi Epsilon provides its undergraduate Brothers the opportunity to strengthen their resolve to make the right choices as they go through their college years, important choices that will create a lifetime of value. Sigma Phi Epsilon's emphasis on nurturing the mind while at the same time developing a healthy body for a long life serves our young Brothers well as they establish their life patterns, healthy patterns of living for life.

When you meet a SigEp for the first time, you will both know more about the Balanced Man and be proud of what your fraternity is accomplishing.

This issue of The Journal is a very special thank you to the donors recognized in the Annual Report. These alumni and friends provide important resources for Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Your investment makes the SigEp experience possible.

Fraternity “Boot Camp,” Without the Push-ups...

Lugging groceries a year ago, David L. Penedot, Florida Atlantic '04, didn't know what he wanted to do. He was frustrated. He didn't have direction.

He heard about SigEp during Rush. The chapter told him about SigEp's values, its effort to build Balanced Men. After joining, the chapter said, “Go to New Member Camp...see what SigEp is all about.”

When David got to the Camp he knew something was going to happen...something big.

For 24 hours David met other new members. He learned about balancing academics with social time. He learned about the pitfalls of abusing drugs and alcohol.

Most of all, he learned how Sigma Phi Epsilon could help him do all of this. He learned what the Fraternity really is...what it stands for...he learned he was not alone.

*David L. Penedot,
Florida Atlantic '04*

Today David is IFC President.
David is a federal intern.
David is a SigEp.

“If I had to describe the New Member Camp in one sentence, ‘Fraternity Boot Camp for the heart’...the Camp put things into perspective,” David says.

David's parents call the New Member Camp the “catalyst for a new David.”

David and other new members are the reason your Foundation makes the New Member Camps possible.

It is a chance for SigEp to instill values before the stereotype of the “frat boy” clouds judgment...It is a chance to show that SigEp is different than what you see on MTV.

It is a chance to change lives...lives like David's. Your gifts make the Camps happen...you change lives.

After all, it's your Fraternity and your Educational Foundation.

Shouldn't it make a difference?

It's About Leaders

When Matthew D. "Matt" Finke, Truman State '05, heard about the Carlson Leadership Academy he was a freshman. He didn't plan to go and didn't really know what it was.

When the chapter president approached him about filling a vacancy for the chapter at the Academy, Matt thought it might be a worthwhile experience, "Sure. I'll go."

Matt didn't know that the experience would impact his life the way it did. Three years later, he would be a chapter president not only encouraging young Brothers to attend, but also leading sessions at the Carlson in Tulsa, OK.

"You realize at the Carlson that every decision you make counts in the long-run," says Matt. "You enter a room full of leaders from across the country and realize just how much you have to learn and how much others have to offer."

"You also realize that we must learn from successes and mistakes."

Matt graduates in 2004 and plans to earn an MBA/JD degree.

Matt will join the ranks of alumni with a tangible set of skills... with knowledge of being a role model and how to learn from other leaders.

Thanks to the Carlson Leadership Academies, Brothers like Matt will groom future generations of SigEp leaders.

Before he graduates, Matt is finding the next group of young Brothers who should have the Carlson experience.

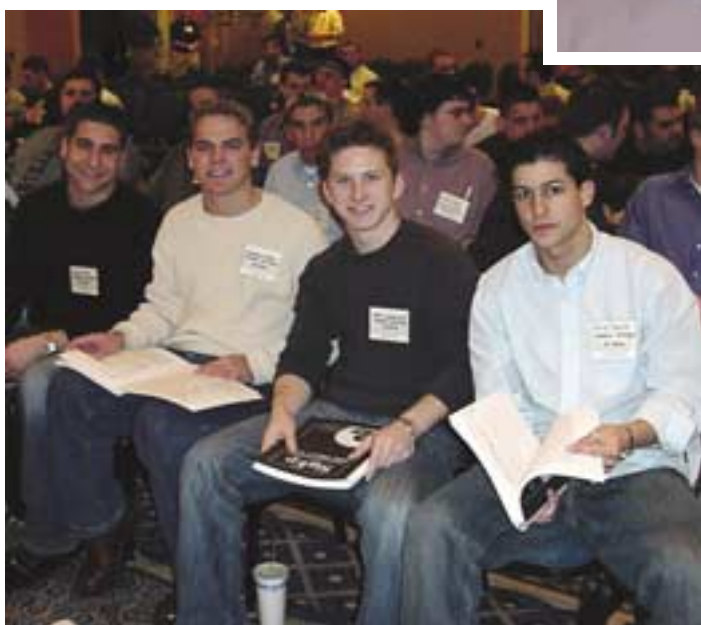

In 2002, nine Academies were held across the Nation and over 1,500 undergraduate leaders attended.

Matt describes his experience as, "An opportunity to have an impact on a young college man...not just for the Fraternity, but something wider...the skills you learn at the Carlson Leadership Academy go far beyond the walls of SigEp...they help you be a leader in life."

Your Foundation has supported Leadership Academies for over 30 years.

“What’s a Ruck Scholar?”

John R. Brickley, Wisconsin '04, is a great college man with great grades, a student leader and SigEp Chapter President. And like most kids in his shoes, John is headed for graduation, and out the SigEp door.

But John is a Ruck Scholar. And like the 100 other hand-picked Scholars that he met last summer, John is now focused on moving ahead...and giving back.

*John R. Brickley,
Wisconsin '04*

For four intense days, John and 100 of his Brothers gathered on the campus of the Jepson School of Leadership Studies at the University of Richmond.

Following the paths of our Founders, they truly did “walk the talk.” They learned about “The Leadership Challenge” from SigEp Barry Z. Posner, California-Santa Barbara '70. About

- Challenging the process
 - Inspiring a shared vision
 - Enabling others to act
 - Modeling the way
- And
- Encouraging the heart.

“I knew immediately that I had a responsibility,” John said. “I had to take the knowledge I learned at Ruck and share it with my chapter. I learned how significant each member’s impact on a chapter can be, and I want my contribution to be long lasting.”

We all want John’s impact to be long lasting.

That’s why we sent him to the Ruck Leadership Institute.

To keep building the fraternity of the future. To keep being “the fraternity that’s different.”

And to make that happen, we need you, and we need your contribution.

Your contribution to the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation can now be targeted specifically to send people to Ruck Leadership Institute. People like John.

What’s a Ruck Scholar?
It’s men like John Brickley.

A SigEp Brother for life.

Institute, a cornerstone in your Fraternity’s Foundation.*

What if You Could Talk to the Ancient Greeks?

When we searched for the words to truly capture the Quest to Greece, we read the stories of all of the Scholars who participated...each described a unique, extraordinary experience. The Quest is perhaps best described fully by one of the Quest participants...in his words.

“In my years as an undergraduate SigEp I have come to the realization that life is full of opportunity. The difference between individuals is based on those who take advantage of these opportunities, and those who do not. As a SigEp I have been presented with countless opportunities to improve my chapter, my country, and myself. Last year I began to believe that I had gotten the most out of the Fraternity that I possibly could. I had been to the Carlsons, the Conclaves, the leadership retreats, and have held multiple e-board positions. I thought I ran out of opportunity, until I was introduced to The Quest to Greece.

When people hear that the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation made the trip possible, they cannot believe it. They think it was a vacation, but when I explain the historical significance of ancient Delphi or the ritual mysteries unknown at Eleusis, they realize that I have gained a tremendous knowledge that could never be attained in a classroom. The two weeks were an intense experience that began at 7am every morning and lasted through to late evenings, incorporating lectures, museums, tours, and readings. Not only was I able to experience the historical side of Greece and how it relates to our fraternal values but I also was able to achieve an understanding of the Greek way of life. Until this Quest I had never traveled abroad. I was what most Americans are today — ethnocentric. I thought that the rest of the world wasn't as good as the U.S. and I had no interest in the events outside the U.S. From my experience I have changed my perspective on things. I have seen what another country has to offer and realize the international possibilities are endless. From my experience on this trip I am now planning to attend graduate school pursuing an M.B.A. in international business. This newfound love in my life would not have been realized if not for the opportunity presented by the Foundation.

The Quest is a young project that is continuously changing and evolving to provide the best experience for all of the participants. In my perspective The Quest separates us from other fraternities. I see this program becoming a staple in the SigEp experience and a step toward achieving our goal of Building Balanced Leaders for the World's Communities. The Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation is distinguishing our Fraternity from the stereotypes. I am eternally grateful for the opportunity to participate in The Quest. Thank you to all who made this possible, you may never fully realize the profound influence this opportunity has had on my/our live(s), and your generosity will never be forgotten.”

The New Fraternity Home

“You’re walking through a ‘frat house’...ugly walls, everything broken, dirty floors, distinct odors, loud noise.

Now imagine walking through the opposite of that...the only thing that has stayed the same is the dimensions of the rooms.

The chapter room is a warm and inviting place. It is an open, carpeted room with large tables where Brothers study.

To the side is the new Faculty Fellow office...regular office hours held daily.

The room that was once a cemetery for broken soda machines and junk now has executive meeting tables.

Down the hall is a new computer lab...the nicest on campus.

We have taken our home and Chapter to a new level.”

You don’t always get a mental tour of a chapter, but Brent W. Decker, Minnesota '05, is proud to talk about the Sigma Phi Epsilon Residential Learning Community at the University of Minnesota.

Faculty members hold office hours at the SigEp Chapter House.

Other Greek organizations ask if they can study at the SigEp Chapter House.

University professors sometimes hold classes at the SigEp Chapter House.

Your Foundation partnered with the Chapter and Alumni Board to make the Residential Learning Community at Minnesota Alpha a reality.

There are 26 Sigma Phi Epsilon Residential Learning Communities across the country. With your support, that number can grow.

SigEp is a Fraternity based on values...our chapter homes must be environments where these values can be realized.

One Story, Many Dreams

Derrick M. Brouhard, Kansas State '03, joined the Kansas Beta Chapter in 1999 because he knew that SigEp would provide leadership opportunities. He looked forward to being a chapter leader and to moving onto graduate school after graduation.

In Derrick's junior year, his father died in a car accident on his way to Kansas Beta's Dad's Weekend. Derrick's plans for the future suddenly became unclear. Financially, he thought graduate school would have to wait.

The following year, Derrick applied for and received the National Competition Scholarship from the Foundation. Things were looking up...

This Fall, 2003, Derrick enters graduate school at one of the finest engineering institutions in the world. He will pursue a dual track to receive an MBA and a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering at the University of Illinois.

Derrick M. Brouhard, Kansas State '03 This would not be possible without the financial support of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation.

"The scholarship greatly helped with financial obligations and persuaded me to still apply for graduate school as I had hoped," says Derrick. "It gave me the confidence to move forward when I needed it most."

"The scholarships the Foundation provides help guide members toward the right actions, the actions that SigEps want repeated...the Foundation is laying the groundwork for Brothers' success...alumni should remember and give back when they can," says Derrick. "I will."

Derrick was just one of the Brothers who benefited from over $300,000 in scholarships provided to undergraduates by the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation in 2002.

We hear stories like Derrick's often.

Your Foundation is able to provide these scholarships through your gifts that support national scholarships like the one Derrick received, as well as scholarship funds at every local chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

We want to keep offering these opportunities, and to give even more. The only way to do so is with your help.

We know that the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation is making a difference and making the career goals of our Brothers a reality.

The Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation Board of Governors is a special group of alumni who make a minimum gift of $1,000 on an unrestricted basis during the calendar year. The investment of the Governors adds great strength to our Educational Foundation...resources that are directed to the personal development of the undergraduate Brothers in Sigma Phi Epsilon. Sigma Phi Epsilon as you knew it as an undergraduate and Sigma Phi Epsilon as it is today is impressive. It values the individual and seeks to develop the best in the men in our chapters. Everyday the young Brothers in our chapters deal with important issues as they chart their course for life. In the chapter they learn an appreciation for teamwork and the need to expand their knowledge. They learn humility, how to form long lasting relationships, and better communication skills. The concept of helping each other...whether it be with course work or being a mentor for a new member...the social graces that are stressed...the orientation toward developing well-balanced relationships and character...each of these helps today's undergraduate. The investment of members of the Board of Governors is vital to making the SigEp experience possible. Being on the roster of SigEps who care about values, about future leadership and about the issues facing young people today, sends a message of pride and encouragement to all who are involved with our Fraternity.

Friend of Sigma Phi Epsilon

The Honor Roll of Giving recognizes the many generous alumni and friends who have contributed to the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation. Listed are the members of our top seven cumulative giving clubs. These are very special alumni and friends who have contributed gifts over the years which reach the cumulative level indicated. Many thanks to our Brothers and friends who make up the Honor Roll of Giving. They have made generous investments in the future. The return on their investment is "Building Balanced Leaders for the World's Communities."

TOP 30 BROTHERS In Consecutive (Years) of Giving

The Sigma Phi Epsilon Foundation understands that the generosity of our donors is important. Equally important is donor loyalty...the belief in the power to make a difference and the unerring, consistent support of the programs that do impact the lives of our young Brothers. Below is a list of the top 30 donors in terms of consecutive years of giving. Our thanks to these Brothers and others like them who have always kept Sigma Phi Epsilon close to their hearts and have invested in the SigEp experience for many years. They truly exemplify that SigEp is not just for college days, but for life....

“There is no better way to ensure the future of our Fraternity than to send our Brothers to the Carlson Leadership Academies. Any time Brothers can learn from one another they build their leadership skills. We cannot expect every Brother to be an excellent leader from the time that he joins, but we can give him the opportunities to become a great leader through funding the Academies.” — Joseph T. Marcum, Ball State '04

“If you had the opportunity to make a sure investment for the future, would you take it? The Ruck Leadership Institute is a sure investment in the future of an undergraduate, the future of your Fraternity, and YOUR future as we develop into capable professionals. Ruck is a building block for a large SigEp network of capable, successful individuals who will accomplish many great feats!” - Alan M. Bressers, Penn '05

“Grades have gone from a 3.06 with 72 men in 2000, to a 3.38 with 90 men in the Spring, 2003. The study room is just that, we have a dedicated faculty fellow and we host educational speakers at the chapter home. It’s pretty simple: having the best environment to attract the best students, that is the Residential Learning Community.” – C. Bryan Lassiter, Georgia '04

“My SigEp experience has been one of growing from an unassuming freshman into a responsible adult that will contribute to my community in whatever way I can. I could have just attended classes, written papers, taken tests and learned what was on the pages of a textbook, but I gave my education another dimension by joining SigEp. I want all alumni to know how the Educational Foundation has benefited not only me, but my whole chapter through the Balanced Man Scholarship, National Competition Scholarship, and helping us become a Residential Learning Community.” – Nathaniel W. “When people hear that the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation made the Quest to Greece possible, they cannot believe it. When I explain the historical significance of ancient Delphi or the ritual mysteries unknown at Eleusis, they realize that I have gained a tremendous first-hand knowledge that could never be attained in a classroom.” - Jeffery T. “The Hicks Scholarship I received in 2002 allowed me to quit my second job and run for an executive office in the Fraternity. The Educational Foundation MUST continue to provide scholarships to members. It allows them to be more active in their chapter, to spend more time studying and improving their grades, and to be better leaders on their campus. My grades have continued to rise every quarter since the scholarship.” — Daniel A. Johnston, Cincinnati '05

“Since the Quest to Greece I have changed my dietary habits, exercise regularly and pay attention to world events and various cultures. I am more accepting of diverse ways of life and ways of thinking. My parents couldn’t believe that a ‘Frat’ (as my father put it) would have a program like this. They routinely say things like, ‘we never had that in my fraternity or sorority,’ and ‘I wish I could have had that opportunity when I was in school.’”

do you see the "biggest sky in the world?"

We hope so. From the programs your Foundation supports to the stories of changing lives, to the names of people who pour their heart and soul into making a difference — it is there. Your individual contribution to the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational
Foundation impacts far more
Brothers than this or any Journal could chronicle. With your help we can get a little closer to our Founders and ideals. A little closer to the men who have contributed to our experience. We can connect the dots and at the same time say “Thank You.”

During spring break, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Alpha Chi Omega teamed up to educate Grand Forks area high schools on sexual assault with an emphasis on drug-facilitated sexual assault. The Grand Forks Police Department provided training to the Sexual Assault Awareness Committee through two, three-hour training sessions on the topic. Feedback from the programs has resulted in repeat visits from the group in the fall and spring. The peer-to-peer interaction has created a greater awareness of using best judgment practices and the adverse effects of alcohol as it relates to sexual assault, future career choices, relationships, and health.

Our Very Own Frat Boys

Chapters that do not live up to the ideas of Sigma Phi Epsilon bring dishonor and disgrace to our name. The Journal of Sigma Phi Epsilon reports these stories to inform its readers and to show that actions have consequences.

St. Mary's

The chapter brought its new members to a park in San Antonio at midnight. San Antonio Police responded to noise complaints, intervened and contacted the school. The chapter's charter was suspended on allegations of hazing and an Alumni Advisory Council was conducted to interview members of the chapter. At this point the future of the chapter remains unclear.

Creighton

The chapter was investigated for allegations of hazing its new members during its "initiation week." The university notified Headquarters of suspicious activity and the charter was suspended. During the investigation into the hazing allegations, an Alumni Advisory Council interviewed all members of the chapter. As a result, several men were removed. Nebraska Delta remains suspended as volunteers and undergraduates take the necessary steps to change the direction of SigEp at Creighton.

Family and Fraternity Rally Around Penn State's Danese

Racing down the front straightaway of Daytona International Speedway at almost 100 miles per hour, two inches off the ground, and only a few inches from fellow competitors is a feeling few people can describe. Sophomore Leonardo A. "Lee" Danese, Penn State, '05, can tell you exactly how it feels, "Exhilarating, a rush of adrenaline through your veins."

Danese is the 2002 World Karting Association's National Road Race Series Champion. He races a 100 cc Yamaha-powered Enduro Sprint Kart, which reaches speeds in excess of 90 miles per hour. The races occur on two-mile tracks with the season beginning in December and lasting through September. His entire family rallies around Danese and his races. His father, Mark, is his crew chief, his mother, Judy, takes all of the photographs, and sister, Loren, keeps everyone motivated.

"I first saw him in The Journal. "In a few years, we could see the World Karting Association's National Champion Danese, racing professionally."

Last season, Danese competed in 16 races, winning five. His goal is to race either NASCAR or Indy cars.

When his fellow SigEp brothers found out Lee was involved in karting, they were taken back at first, "Lots of the guys gave me a hard time at first but then gave me a little more respect when they found out how fast I was going and how dangerous the racing was."

Danese plans on running a limited karting schedule this season while honing his skills at driving schools like Skip Barber. "This year is a transitional year for me; we plan on running some kart events with the goal of moving to open wheel or stock cars next year."

"I completed the first step on a long road, but I am confident that I can make it to the top." J

A Call to Arms

During the recent war in Iraq, Sigma Phi Epsilon had numerous brothers who answered the call to arms. From high-ranking officers to soldiers, alumni to undergraduates, SigEps were on the front lines. The following stories are a sample of submissions received by The Journal and are meant to give you a perspective of life during war.

Eastern Illinois

On Palm Sunday at a prayer service in Baghdad, Iraq, two chapter brothers and charter members of Illinois Nu, Eastern Illinois, Kevin J. Groppe, '95, and John T. Sacia, '95, were reunited. The two served in Iraq with the U.S. Army. Sacia is an Apache helicopter pilot and Groppe is an information officer.

Captain Bradley S. Loudon, Kansas, '96, of the 3rd Brigade had a Reuters photographer imbedded with his unit and became the subject of several images from Iraq. Loudon stated prior to the invasion, "There's no place I'd rather be than right here, right now. I grew up playing team sports, and this is the ultimate team sport."

Oklahoma Beta, Oklahoma

Marine Colonel Darrell L. Moore, Oklahoma '76, led the forward elements of the 1st Force Service Support Group. As the Chief of Staff he commanded 15,000 Marines and Sailors responsible for replenishing supplies to front-line Marines moving through Iraq. One of the Captains under his command is Christopher M. Stegge, Oklahoma State '98.

Colonel Moore's look of satisfaction comes after drinking his first Diet Coke in more than 60 days.

Chapter's Newest SigEp A University President

When asked why he agreed to become a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, Florida Gulf Coast University President Dr. William C. Merwin, Florida Gulf Coast '03, stated that he wanted to set a high standard for Greek life on campus. Setting the bar high lets other Greek organizations strive for the excellence found within SigEp, particularly the Balanced Man Ideal of developing a Sound Mind in a Sound Body.

President Merwin first interacted with the chapter due to his working relationship with Kevin J. Price, '04. Price is heavily involved in Student Government and simply asked President Merwin if he would be an honorary member of SigEp. As an avid supporter of Greek life and SigEp, he hopes to attend chapter meetings periodically and continue building his relationship with the brothers.

The Ritual team consisted of Price, Nathan M. Touchette, '06, Matthew A. Hall, '05, Matthew P. Graham, '04, Joseph R. Duquette, '04, Matthew J. Bode, '04, and Justin M. Segal, '03. There were several alumni present at the Ritual, including Past Grand President and Order of the Golden Heart recipient Dr. R. Eric Weise, Cincinnati '54, who lives on nearby Sanibel Island.

The Florida Board of Regents appointed Dr William Merwin second President of FGCU, the fastest growing university in the country. President Merwin has helped to raise over $30 million for the university during his short time as President." J

Indiana Alpha, Purdue

Classmates of Iven C. Kincheloe, '49, will present to the chapter a bronze plaque honoring him and his life at noon on September 13, 2003. All SigEp Brothers are invited to attend this ceremony at 690 Waldron Street. Contact Robert L. "Bob" Mannfeld, '47 at rmannfeld@earthlink.net. Carl was a double ace in the Korean War and as the test pilot of the X-2 rocket ship was the first man into "outer space".

Missouri Alpha, Missouri

Past Grand President and Order of the Golden Heart recipient Dennis W. Bond, Missouri, '66, was named Director of Sales for the Family Arena in St. Charles, Missouri.

Missouri Zeta, Southeast Missouri State

Lieutenant General James T. Conway, Southeast Missouri State '69, currently serves as the Commanding General, I Marine Expeditionary Force, which consists of 85,000 marines.

Dennis W. Bond, Missouri '66

He was commissioned in 1970 as an infantry officer and served with the 3d Battalion. In 1977, he commanded two companies of the battalion. In 1984 he served two years as Senior Aide to the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff. In January, 1990 Brother Conway assumed command of the the 3rd Battalion. While commanding The Basic School, he was selected for Brigadier General in December 1995.

In November of 2002 Brother Conway was promoted to his current rank and assumed command of the I Marine Expeditionary Force.

His personal decorations include the Defense Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with gold stars in lieu of second and third awards, Navy Commendation Medal, Navy Achievement Medal, and the Combat Action Ribbon.

Texas Alpha, Texas-Austin

James B. "Jim" Huffines, Texas-Austin, '73, has been appointed to the UT System Board of Regents, which determines policy for all 15 institutions within the UT System. His plans include finding funding for the UT System in the midst of a budget shortfall. "I have a real love and passion for the University of Texas, and I consider this one of the largest honors that I could ever receive," Huffines said. He is the president of PNB Financial.

West Virginia Delta, Davis & Elkins

During the 2002 Alumni Awards Homecoming Banquet, Tharon L. Jack, Davis & Elkins, '61, received the Tower Award, given for outstanding service to the college and its alumni program. His is a volunteer on the Athletic Hall of Fame committee and on two Centennial Campaign committees. Jack supports his alma mater "in any way I can." He, both of his brothers, his twin sister, his wife, and three children are all alumni of Davis & Elkins.

Making an Investment in Sigma Phi Epsilon

So! I hear a lot about “A Planned Gift-” isn't that the same as one of those complicated, tax-driven gifts?

No! The Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation considers “A Planned Gift” a gift you have given some thought to and decided,

■ why you want to provide for Sigma Phi Epsilon

■ what you want it used for, and

■ how you want to provide the funding.

Sigma Phi Epsilon holds a special place in the hearts of alumni and friends who include it in their current and long-term gift planning. Current and Estate gifts provide the resources that enable the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation to support the work of the Fraternity, to enhance the undergraduate experience.

The most frequent planned charitable gift is a bequest in a will.

■ 58% of Americans do not have a will, so state laws will determine who receives their estate.

■ 8% of those who do have a will leave a planned charitable gift.

■ 25% of people change a planned charitable gift once it is in their will.

■ 52% of those who make a change increase their planned charitable gift.

■ 32% of those who have a planned charitable gift in their will tell the recipient about it.

Alternatives to a Specific Bequest in your Will

■ A residuary bequest provides that the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation receives all or a portion of the remainder of your estate after all debts, taxes, expenses and other bequests have been paid.

■ A percentage bequest provides that the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation receives an expressed percentage of your estate. This is beneficial if your estate may change in size over the years.

■ A contingent bequest provides that the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation is a beneficiary of your estate if a named beneficiary dies before you or disclaims the property.

The Codicil to a Will

The Codicil is an appendage to an existing will that adds to or modifies something already in the will. It is just as legal and binding as the main document. A Codicil is an easy, inexpensive, effective way to add Sigma Phi Epsilon to your estate planning. You don't have to redo your entire will.

After the will, the Charitable Gift Annuity is the next most frequent planned charitable gift. Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation Charitable Gift Annuities are an attractive way to make your planned gift now and provide good annuity income. The following alumni have used the Sigma Phi Epsilon Charitable Gift Annuity to make a planned gift to Sigma Phi Epsilon.
